WINDS OF CHANGE

Michelob ULTRA is here to remind everyone that JOY is an essential part of the journey – it's an integral part of the soccer world, it is part of the whole experience, even for the world's biggest soccer stars. To show these stars living our mantra, It's Only Worth It If You Enjoy It, we're bringing some of the most iconic players in the game to a setting that's natural to Michelob ULTRA – a soccer/sports-watching bar. A place where enjoyment is felt + relatable to all. Michelob ULTRA brought in some of the most passionate players in the game – Christian Pulisic, Carli Lloyd, and Guillermo Ochoa – who will compete against each other in a foosball match during an action-packed TVC that kicks off the brand's World Cup campaign.

TACO BELL WORLD CUP

To give a nod to the culture that has inspired Taco Bell since day one, the brand tapped Cashmere to create a World Cup TV commercial that launched on November 21 - “Donde We All Play” - celebrating Latin culture while uniting the community through their passion for food and soccer. Through this campaign, Taco Bell is building relationships with the culture by engaging with the community and focusing on inclusivity. PRIME VIDEO: MEGAN THEE STALLION: IN HER WORDS

Our strategy leveraged Megan Thee Stallion's star power to ensure the success of the MEGAN THEE STALLION: IN HER WORDS documentary PR campaign, driving media engagement and meaningful conversations around the film's core themes.

The campaign launched with a coordinated date announcement and trailer release, setting the tone for impactful press coverage. Through targeted outreach, we secured strategic positioning pieces with talent in Essence and People, amplifying the documentary's narrative and building anticipation. Following this, our team facilitated a successful virtual press day with director Nneka Onuorah and secured an engaging interview on Way Up With Angela Yee. Additionally, we maintained momentum with compelling stories, even in the absence of direct talent participation.

To broaden the campaign's reach, we delivered comprehensive event PR support for the LA IMAX premiere and multi-market screenings, ensuring robust media attendance and online buzz. Every phase of our strategy was designed to maximize visibility and accessibility, while spotlighting the documentary's powerful themes of empowerment, identity, mental health, and healing. The results speak volumes with coverage secured in top-tier outlets including Access Hollywood, Complex, E! News, Extra!, Essence, People, Pitchfork, UPROXX, The Hollywood Reporter, Rolling Stone, The Root, Therapy For Black Girls Podcast, and more.

Overall, our multifaceted approach delivered 230+ editorial placements with 3.8B+ impressions and 90 social placements generating 238M+ impressions, culminating in MEGAN THEE STALLION: IN HER WORDS achieving the #1 spot on Prime Video during its debut week!

Building the Voice of a New Category: Personal Autonomous Mobility

Tensor launched in August 2025 as an ambitious challenger in personal autonomy. By the first half of 2026, strategic communications had repositioned the brand as a production-ready leader in personal Level 4 autonomy — shifting the narrative from “the promise” of autonomous ownership to “the proof” of real-world commercialization.

Brand Launch

AliExpress (Alibaba), a somewhat unknown discount shopping platform is looking to break in the US market against heavy hitter incumbents. Targeting a predominately Black and Latine shopper – the Unapologetic Discoverers and the Culturally-Curious – we focused on AliExpress' promise of discovery – discovery of so much stuff at value prices, and the discovery of self and passions and possibilities.

Our platform - The Possibility Store - touts the endless possibilities you can only get with AliExpress, highlighting self discovery, diverse products, hobbies, thrill of the hunt in bargain shopping.

For social - we licensed a track - Cash Cobain's TikTok "Fisherrrr" capitalizing on fans getting groovy to the #Reemski Dance - the hottest new bop set with Bay Swag
